A Tradition Worth Keeping . . .

SCHOOL DAYS

Throughout our school days, many of us come seeking more than education. Each brings his own assortment of beliefs and ambitions. These beliefs and ambitions are brought together to form the pattern by which each student lives his life.

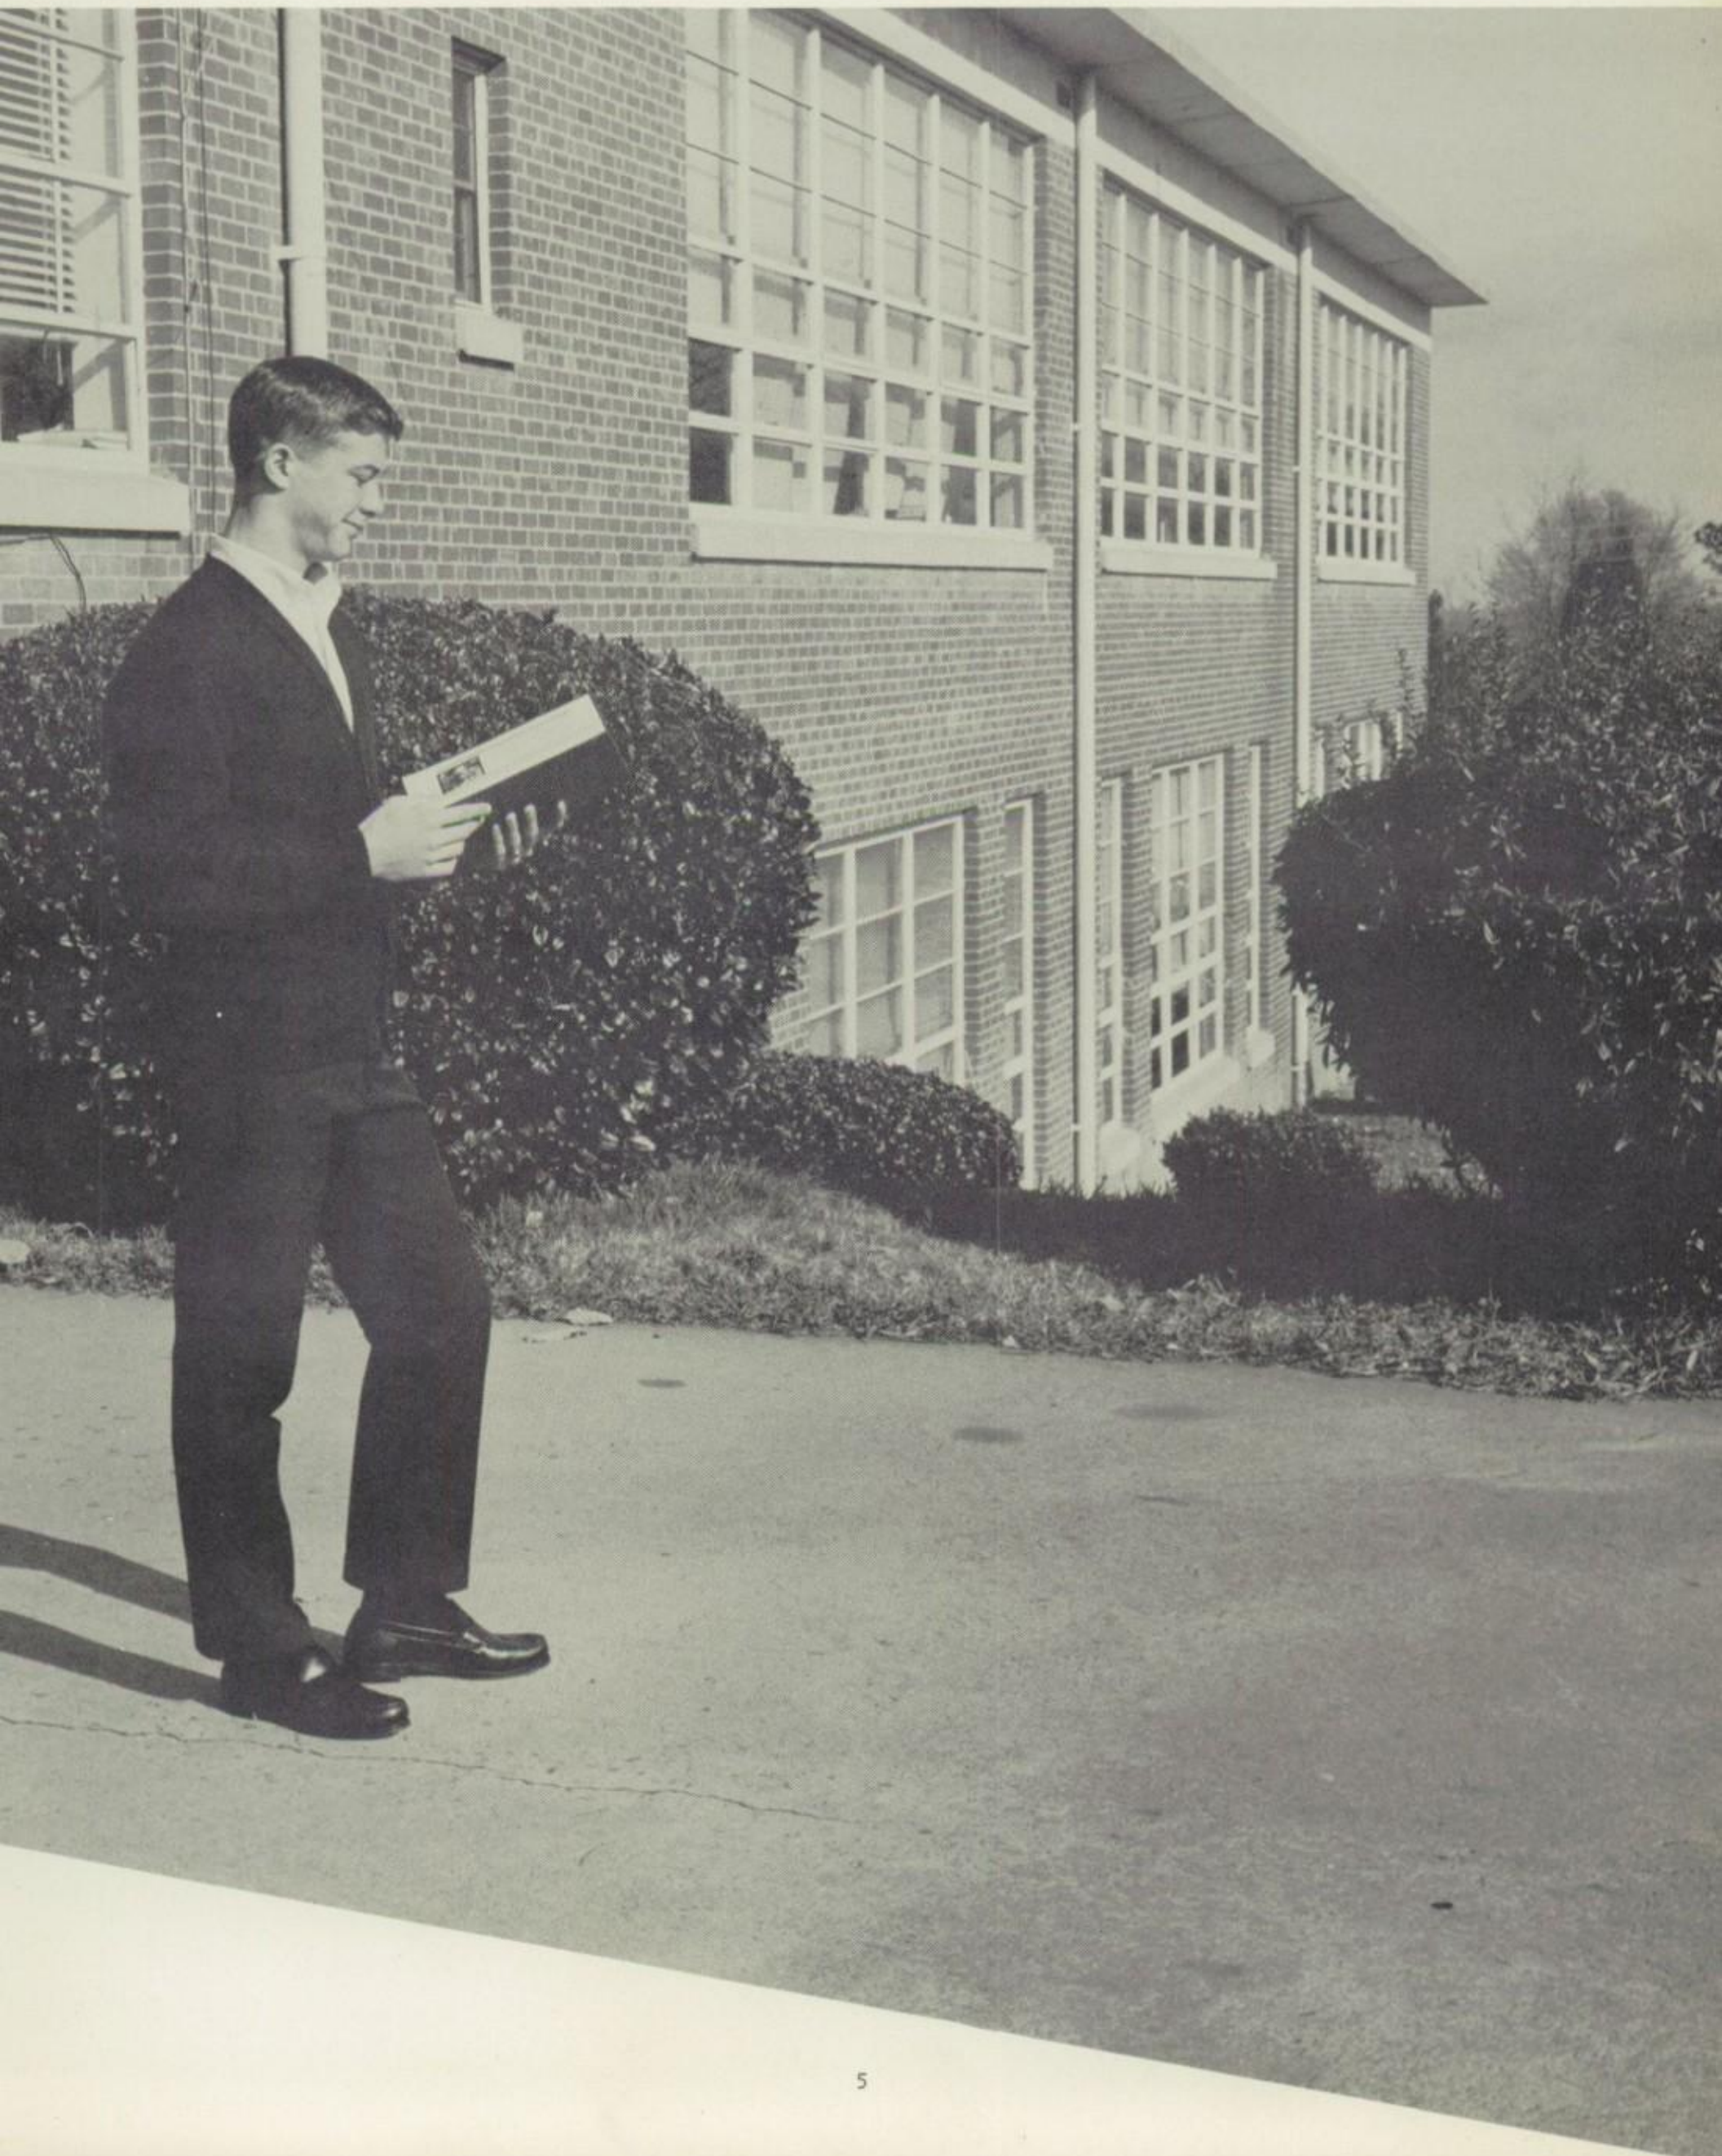

Our school days are numbered-both for those who sought and found and for those who continue to seek and find that which satisfies. We cherish the memories when we think of the rewards of work well done, the enthusiasm put forth for extra curricular activities, and for our enduring struggle for graduation. Challenges, trials, and attainments are brought with each new day. We feel we have an obligation to our school, teachers, parents, and ourselves during our school days. The pictures and words in this book tell what we have done and what we are doing to fulfill this obligation.

The story of our SCHOOL DAYS during 1965 at Stanley High School is told in this book.

Mold Leaders of Tomorrow

Our Faculty Imparts Wisdom Thus Aiding

Mr. Sigmon explains the mysticisms of algebra to his students.

Mr. Kiser, District Principal, helps students with their many problems as shown here.

In Our Development

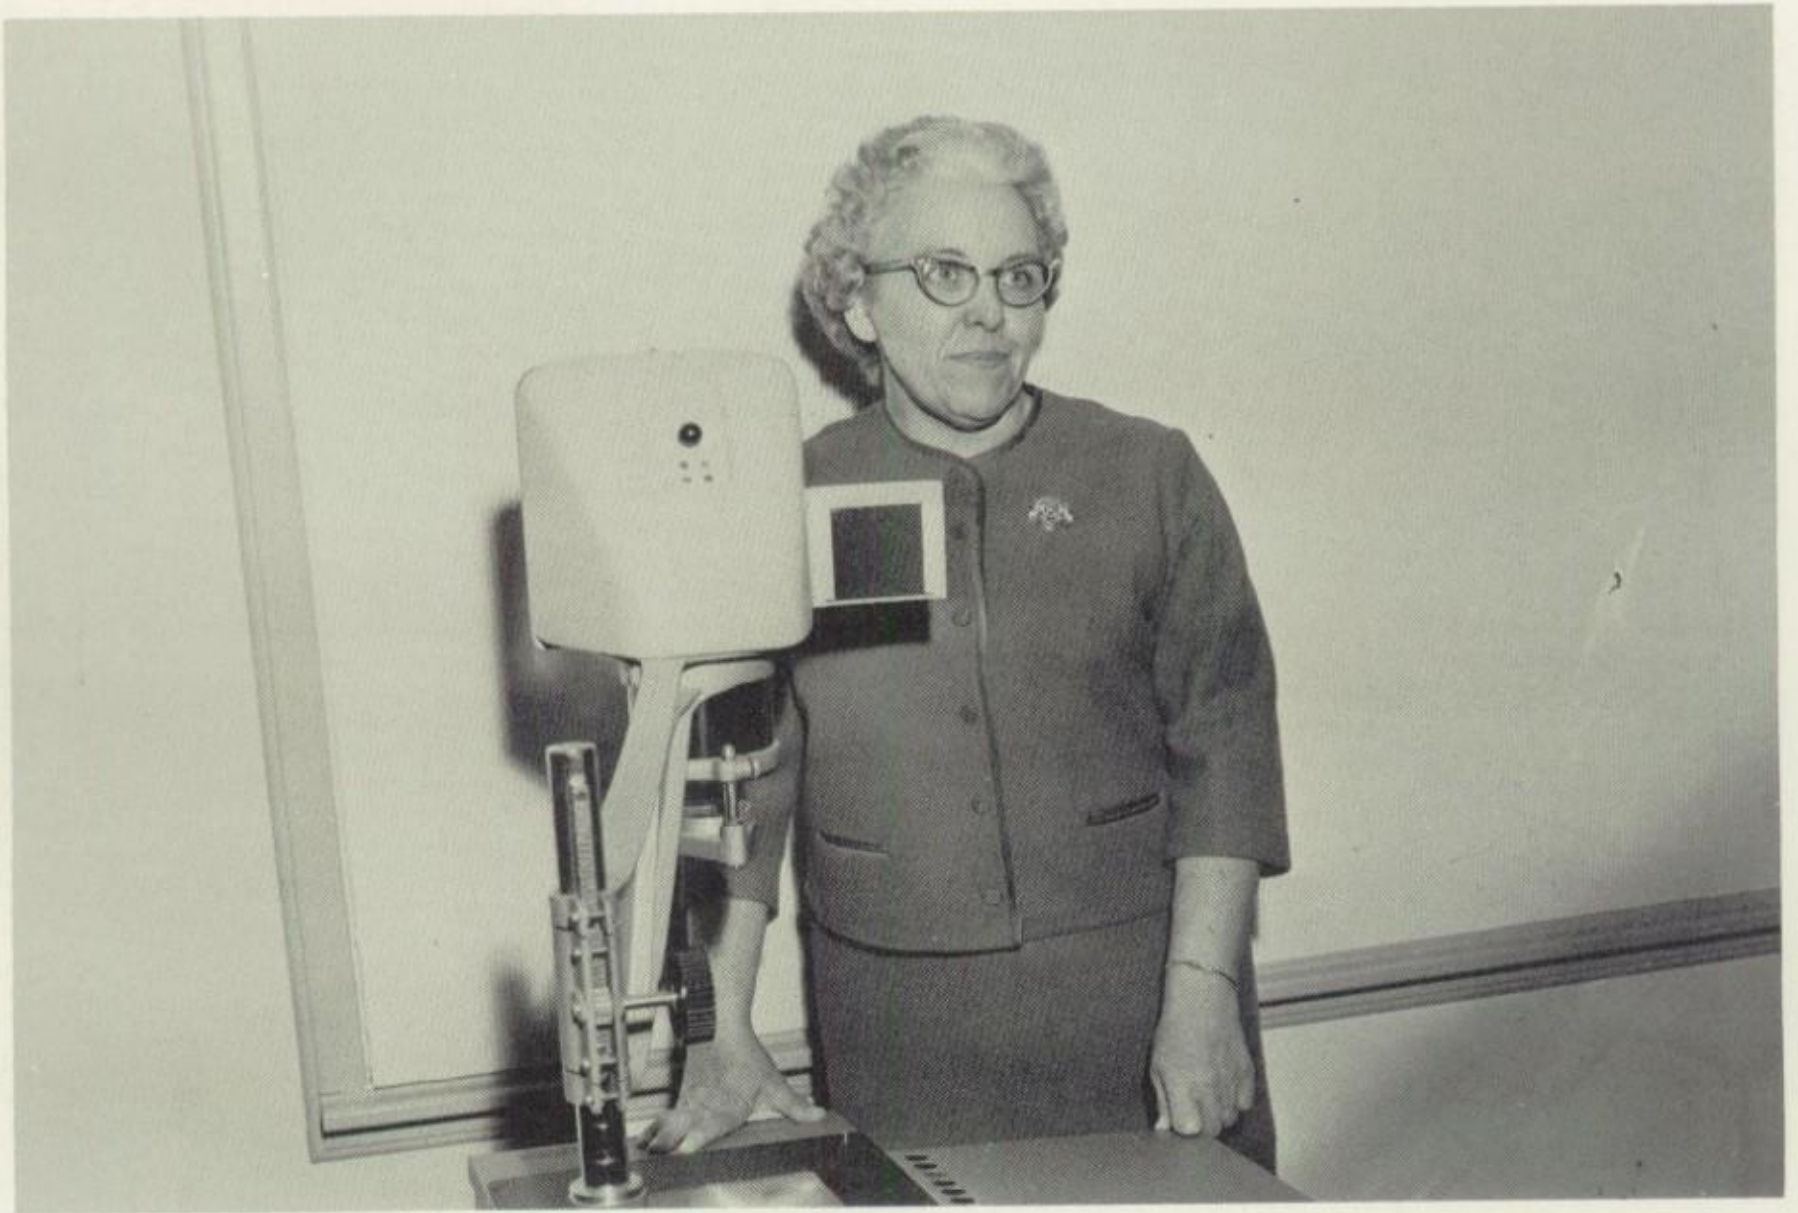

Our faculty is always willing and ready to help each student. Many of the students take their problems to our Guidance Department. Here, most of the students find the answer to their problems, large or small. All of our teachers act as guidance counselors at one time or another. We feel all our teachers well qualified to help us solve our problems; whether they be about our studies or personal.

A teacher should be able to talk to the students with patience and understanding. Besides being an instructor, he is to be an everpresent help and guide whenever needed by the students.

Mr. Hollis, high school principal, is a "jack-of-all-trades". He excuses absences and serves as coach of the baseball team. In any situation in the school, when assistance is needed, Mr. Hollis is the man to see.

We Dedicate

We proudly dedicate the Forget-Me-Not to a person whom we all respect and admire. As a teacher and a friend, she has helped to improve the qualities of individual students so that they should make use of these traits in their roles as mature adults.

She is patient, understanding, and devoted to her teaching profession. Her wisdom is well suited for her guidance work, and any problem, large or small, gets the same friendly consideration. As a mathematics and foreign language teacher she has boosted many students to reach goals of high academic levels.

For all of these reasons, and many more that cannot be put into words, we proudly and gratefully dedicate the 1965 Forget-Me-Not to Mrs. Lollie Sigmon.

CONGRATULATIONS, "STAYPUT"!

No "dropout" you! You wanted a future that offered opportunity. So you stuck with it. And you worked hard. Now you hold in your hand the passport to that future.

Just ahead lies life's biggest decision—your choice of a career. Choose wisely. Enter the business with opportunities unlimited—the textile industry.

Ever expanding, ever progressing, our industry constantly seeks intelligent, resourceful, imaginative young people who welcome the challenge of progress.

Learn more about the opportunities offered you by the textile industry. Contact the Personnel Director at the J. P. Stevens plant near you.
